

“A WORD TO MY LEADERS”

by Rev. Tyrone A. Jackson ©2005

Be mindful how you position yourself
between My sheep and me.

As I have given you this charge
to feed and tend to them.

I commanded them to honor you.
Not to worship you as superstars.

I'm the Master and you are my servants,
just as they are.

Walk carefully and mind your speech,
because every heart is dear to Me.

Discern wisely lest you be caught Sleeping on the Watch.

You see some things.
But I know all things even that
Which is done in the dark.

Set your heart right
else I will expose you
To your very own shame.

Be alert! These are great and terrible days.
Fast and pray that you may be worthy of escape.

Blow the trumpets and ring every bell,
because the day of the Lord
is closer than you may believe.

Don't be like Lucifer who thought to be in charge,
only to suffer a great fall.

It's all about Me!
Not you at all!

I know of your needs.
That's why you should be on your knees
before my face.

You will get what's due to you.
Just carry out my charge each and every day.

Be stern with the people
as I command you to speak,
not afraid of their faces
nor concerned with what they may say.

It's souls I want and not your excuses.

Where sin abound so does my grace.
That's why I'm expecting
a great harvest in this place.

You will receive everything you need
when you earnestly seek my face
like a man with a desperate need.

All your heart and all your soul
is what I require of thee.

So make it clear the time is drawing near,
where every man will give an account
the things he has done here.

One last question and one last warning to all my people.
How many Prophets must I send before you obey my Words?

This is all I have to say to all those who desire to see my face in that Great and Mighty Day.
