

“I’m Not Worried!”

by Rev. Tyrone A. Jackson ©2005

I’m not worried! I’m not worried!

No! I’m not worried,
as you should be.

I’m already on my knees,
praising God for saving me.

If you see what I have seen,
then you too would be on your knees
asking God to have mercy on thee.

By His Grace I’m warning you!
There is something on the horizon
you won’t believe.

That’s why I’m making it a point to tell you to come clean and bow to your knees.

*Trim your lamps! Trim your lamps!
If you want to be at peace with Me.*

*Read the WORD! Read the WORD!
Then you will see what I see.*

I’m not worried! I’m not worried!

I’m doing my part with an exclamation mark!
What about thee?

My reward will be great you will see.

I only hope and pray that He find you where you should be.

On your knees letting Him lead the Way.
This then will become your best day.
